

Curriculum Guidelines

Neo Kids Curriculum Incorporates developmentally appropriate best practices as given below and fun with learning experience.

 Communication and Language Development:

Involves children to develop confidence and expressing themselves, speak and write. Language and communication skill include ability to understand and express using words, gestures or facial expressions. Communication and language development enhance through reading books, rhymes & story time.

 Literacy Development:

Literacy development is a vital play of child's overall development. Encouraging children to learn to link sound and letters and began to read and write. Children are given an access to a wide range of reading materials (Books, Poems, Stories and Writing materials) to develop their interest.

 Numeracy Development:

Numeracy involves understanding numbers, counting, solving, measuring, sorting, patterns, simple additions and subtracting problems; and to describe shapes, spaces. Numeracy concepts refers to the foundation of mathematical reasoning acquired in early childhood.

 Fine Motor Skill Development:

It helps Children to be active through all different structured indoor and outdoor games and activities. Also enhances coordination, control and movements.

Event Celebration:

It inculcates cultural appreciation and developing a strong foundation of belonging and acceptance through cultural celebration and education helps children to create a diverse social network.

 Expressive Art and Craft:

Many of the motions is involved in making arts and craft, such as holding a paint brush or scribbling with crayons are essential to the growth of fine motor skills in young children. Enabling children to explore wide range by sharing their thoughts, ideas, drawings and feelings through variety of craft activities.